END FOR BEE LICK PIKE

Enthusiastic Road Meeting Held at Crab Orchard Monday and People Rally to Cause.

The most enthusiastic good roads crowd that has gathered in this section in years was that at Crab Orchard Monday afternoon. The object of the meeting, which had been called on short notice, was to discuss the building of a pike from Crab Orchard to the Pulaski county line, just south of Bee Lick, the Pulaski fiscal court having designated that as the official route in connecting the counties. East End people generally, and those living on the mud road between Bee Lick and Crab Orchard particularly, composed the assemblage, which held its meeting in the "court-house."

Capt. J. B. Willis was made chairman and J. R. Edmonson and W. B. Hansford, secretaries.

George B. Brown, of Pulaski, was the first speaker and he told of the many advantages that would be derived from piking the road which led through a splendid section of the country, which now had practically no outlet.

He was followed by another Pulaskian, R. W. Reynolds, who stated, that he was old and crippled, but that he proposed to donate to the splendid cause of building the pike and "lifting the mud people out of the mud and mire."

Attorney W. B. Hansford was the next speaker. He dwelt at length on the possibilities of the East End of the road were built, and insisted that what helped the East End would help the county. He thought the East End had not gotten her share of the good things handed out by the fiscal court and stated that while his section of Lincoln county had aided in the building up of the rest of the county, very little had been done for the East End.

W. E. Perkins, who is the most enthusiastic man in the county on the proposition of building the pike at Bee Lick, gave many reasons why the citizens along the line should donate freely toward the building of the pike. He began his business career at Bee Lick and there for twelve years lived among the mud people, and he today, for at least six months of the year have no way of getting to church, school or railroad station save through mud. Like Mr. Hansford, Mr. Perkins insisted that Crab Orchard Magisterial District had not been dealt fairly with and that the time had now come when she should make her demands and stand for them.

K. S. Alcorn, of Stanford, made a telling talk and was liberally applauded. He admitted that he owned land along the proposed route, but insisted that if he did not he would be just as strong for the proposition to build the pike. He said that the magnificent area that would be opened and the many advantages that would result. Magistrate Petrey said that he was for the proposed road, but that his colleagues of the fiscal court "downed him as they had done on almost every other proposition that was of vital interest to the East End. That he had not been notified of the meeting that was held here last Monday, Feb. 22, and was informed of it by Pulaski county people, who wanted him to be on hand." J. C. McWhorter moved to Lincoln county from the mountains in order that he might have the advantage of good roads; that he knows what it is to wade through mud every time one went away from home.

At this juncture subscriptions were called for and it kept the secretaries busy getting the names and amounts of those who were to subscribe to the fund to help build a pike which it is so badly needed. Following is a list of those who contributed, and this list will be largely augmented, for each man in the meeting considered himself a committee of one to work for the splendid cause:

When the work of the solicitors is completed it is believed that at least $6,000 will be pledged. The proposition is to have Road Commissioner Terrell go over the route and see the need of the people and their willingness to aid in lifting themselves out of the mud. It is likely that Mr. Terrell will be at Crab Orchard the latter part of the week and when he gets there he will be met by an enthusiastic crowd as he has been in many a day, we predict. The East Enders have little or no doubt about the success of their enterprise, notwithstanding the fact that Lincoln's fiscal court has decreed that the route by Eubanks is the official one.

Well Loses Fine Lot of Bees.

Among innocent victims of the foot and mouth disease which is being so rigidly enforced by federal and state authorities, last week, were the Weils, of Lexington, among the largest cattle buyers and shippers in the south. They had been feeding an exceptionally fine lot of steers at a farm north of the Kentucky river, and last week put them on the cars for the Philadelphia market. They are said to have had them inspected before shipment, but soon after getting into Pennsylvania, another inspector opened up the cars and examined the herd, and claimed to have discovered that a number of them were infected with the dreaded foot and mouth disease. One of the best of the shipment, all but two or three were ordered killed, and Mr. Weil does not know to whom to look for reimbursement. The loss proved to be a heavy one, as the bees were all in fine shape and would have brought top price.

Want 'Em To Get It Right

E. J. Tanner, of McKinney, gets his name spelled and written incorrectly so often that he has gotten tired of the following printed on it. My name is not E. J. Farmer nor C. J. Tanner nor E. J. Hanna nor D. J. Turner nor E. J. McKinney nor P. J. Darnier nor F. M. Ware, but E. J. Tanner. My address is not McKinney nor McKinny nor McKennie nor McKenna, but McKinney. Since giving the cards careful distribution he now occasionally gets his name and address as it should be.

Broke His Leg

While playing at the hemp house Saturday, Tim Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Spears Fisher, had the misfortune to break his right ankle. He was otherwise painfully hurt.

For the Stomach and Liver

L. N. Stuart, West Webster, N. Y., writes "I have used Chamberlain's Tablets for disorders of the stomach and liver off and on for the past five years, and it affords me pleasure to state that I have found them to be just as represented. They are mild in their action and the results have been satisfactory. I value them highly." For sale by all dealers.

Correction in Jesse D. Wearen's Card

In the card of Jesse D. Wearen, announcing his candidacy for the democratic nomination for Circuit Clerk in Friday's issue, two paragraphs became slightly "balled up" giving different meaning than which Mr. Wearen intended. The two paragraphs of his card, should have read as follows:

"To those that have supported me in my past races, I wish to express my sincere thanks, and I only hope that they may see your way clear to support me in this race, for which I assure you I will be very grateful indeed."

Local State Bank in Good Shape

State Bank Examiner Farris, of Frankfort, was here last week and made an examination of the State Bank & Trust Company of this city. He stated at the conclusion of his examination, that he found the local institution in splendid shape and that the showing made in its business was much better than the average of state banks at the present time, and that he was well pleased with it.

Death of Little Child

Daisy, the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bragg Thompson, died at Crab Orchard Saturday of whooping cough and was laid to rest by the side of her grandmother, Mrs. A. G. Huffman, at the Lancaster cemetery Sunday afternoon. The young parents have the sympathy of the community in their great bereavement.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES.

Rev. M. D. Early, of the local Baptist church, went to Louisville Monday morning to attend a meeting of the State Board of Missions. Rev. Fanniller will preach at the Hubble Christian church Sunday, March 6th at 11 o'clock A. M. Remember the midweek service at the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening at 7:30. Read Acts chapter five.

The union meeting of the Young Peoples societies of Stanford, that was held at the Presbyterian church on last Sunday evening at 6:30, was largely attended by members from the societies of the different churches. The meeting was led by Sam J. Embury, Jr., who proved a very excellent leader, having a well prepared program. The subject for evening was "How to Improve the Prayer Meeting." Mrs. Owsley Newland, Mrs. H. D. Phillips and Mrs. J. B. Paxton gave very interesting, as well as beneficial features of the evening. There were several other talks given, as to what the Christian Endeavor Societies were doing in the mountains and other places in Kentucky. The musical part of the program was a very pleasing feature of the evening. The meeting was indeed thoroughly enjoyed by all who were present and it is hoped that there will be many more like this one.

WOMAN SLAYS HUSBAND.

Horrible Tragedy in Mercer County Saturday Night.

John Peavor, a prominent farmer living two miles west of Harrodsburg was shot and instantly killed at 6 o'clock Saturday night by his wife, Laura, after their 15-year-old son, John, had made an ineffectual effort to prevent the tragedy. Immediately afterward Mrs. Peavor called Sheriff J. W. Davenport, of Mercer, and told him what she had done. When the officers arrived Peavor's body was already cold and Mrs. Peavor was in a state bordering on collapse.

Mrs. Peavor refused to make any statement as to the cause of the tragedy, and her son was not thoroughly questioned by the officers, but according to the information the posse gained from the neighbors the Peavor home life has not been happy for some time.

Due to Mrs. Peavor's condition special guard was placed about her quarters in the jail, and will be kept there until she recovers from the shock of her experience.

The Peavors had only two children. Besides the boy and his wife, Peavor is survived by married daughter, a Mrs. Robinson, of Danville, Ill., who has been notified.

McKinney W. C. T. U. Reception

On Wednesday afternoon and evening, February 17th, the Frances S. Ward Memorial Day was celebrated by the McKinney Woman's Christian Temperance Union by the "rendering of a reception to the general public. A house to house invitation was extended, and there was a wide representation. Temperance literature and information was given out to every one who called. Refreshments were served and a pleasant time spent. Ten new members were gained, making a total membership of thirty two. The object of the reception was to create interest and sympathy in the W. C. T. U. work, and to gain new members, so it is a grateful satisfaction to know that our efforts were crowned with success.—Miss Maudie Ware, Supt. of Press Department.

Prize Hereford Herd Burns

A large stock barn on W. H. Curtice's Pine Park farm, eight miles north of Shelbyville, burned this week with a loss of $10,000. The animals burned comprised the cream of this herd and included among them were many prize winners at international shows, as well as prize stock, which was being prepared for the show herd during the coming season. Mr. Curtice is in California, but other Hereford breeders familiar with his herd, estimate the money loss at not less than $25,000. No insurance was carried on the cattle, and only $750 on the barn.

LATEST WAR NEWS.

The State Department at Washington was handed the notification of Great Britain and France to neutrals regarding the reprisals to be inaugurated against Germany and her allies, which is considered by American diplomats as the most serious phase of the shipping controversy so far arising. A strong protest immediately is regarded almost certain, and it is stated at the capital that the measures to be inaugurated against Germany are worse than a blockade and calculated to paralyze the commerce of neutral countries.

Premier Asquith in the House of Commons delivered "England's answer to Germany's submarine blockade." If the combined fleets of Great Britain and France can prevent it, no commodities of any kind except those on the seas shall henceforth, until the conclusion of the war, reach or leave the shores of Germany, the Premier stated. He also touched upon the cost of the war, which he estimated at $7,500,000 daily to the Allies, and likely to increase.

The 23rd of the allied fleet on the Dardanelles has been delayed because of unfavorable weather for long range fire and aeroplane observations, according to a statement from the Admiralty. The Paris Temps asserts that an agreement has been reached between France, Great Britain and Russia regarding the future status of the Dardanelles where Russia is to have free passage of the straits.

The Russians have concluded their operations around Przemyśl, according to their official report, where they defeated and have thrown back to the frontier "not less than two army corps." The Germans after compelling the retreat of the Russian Tenth army, attempted to join battle with the forces at Miwa, where it is claimed they failed in a driving movement.

Louisville Stock Yards To Be Opened.

Reopening of the Bourbon stock yards next Thursday morning has been recommended to the Bureau of Animal Industry, United States Department of Agriculture, by Dr. U. G. Houck, Dr. A. J. Payne and John W. Newman, chairman of the Kentucky Livestock Sanitary Board. A conference was held Saturday afternoon at which the decision was reached, and the recommendation was made. Mr. Newman said that the Government officials realize that the cleaning and disinfecting of the Bourbon stockyards has been thorough and that there seems to be no danger, if the necessary care is being taken by shippers and buyers.

Casey Wants State Aid On Roads

Casey county has joined the procession and has applied for State Aid for its roads, according to State Senator Charles F. Montgomery, who was in Stanford Monday. Senator Montgomery said that the fiscal court of Casey at a special meeting had appropriated $8,000 for road work and reconstruction, and would ask a like sum from the State Road Fund. A delegation composed of several officers, including Senator Montgomery, and County Attorney Lige Moore will go to Frankfort today to take up the matter with the State Road department. One of the first pieces of road work which will be done with the fund thus secured, will be complete reconstruction of the pike from Hustonville to Liberty, which is the county seat route from Liberty to Stanford. Mr. Montgomery says that it is the plan of the Casey officials to put this road in first class shape, build a number of badly needed bridges, and in fact, give Casey county better roads than she has ever known before.

Fish and Game Commission Plans To Protect Game Bids In State

Progress and plans in restocking Kentucky with big game and birds, and the streams with fish occupied most of the session of the State Game and Fish Commission at Frankfort this week. Forty-five whittail deer, which were captured by George Bell county and an order has been placed with the Cleveland Cliffs Company of Michigan, for twenty adult deer. In addition to these the commission will close the season of three Japanese deer presented to the commission by the Japanese Government, which received them from a friend in New York, have been placed there and three English Fallow deer, a fine species, which thrives in this country will be placed in the preserve soon.

Should the next General Assembly make a closed season on deer for a sufficient period, deer from the preserve will be distributed throughout the State where conditions are favorable. Restocking the fields with quail is a problem on which the commission is working. Permits have been secured to catch a large number in Alabama, which are to be sent to the State Game and Fish Commission to secure a supply in Mexico were frustrated by the discovery of a disease among them, which resulted in a Government embargo on their importation. The season for transportation from Cuba will close February 28, but the commission has succeeded in getting a contract for fifty pairs.

An experiment is being undertaken with English ring-necked quail,

INDIGESTION ENDED, STOMACH FEELS FINE

Time "Pape's Diapepsin" In Five Minutes all Sourness, Gas, Heartburn and Dyspepsia is Gone

Sour, gassy, upset stomach, indigestion, heartburn, dyspepsia; when the food you eat ferments into gases and stubborn lumps; your head aches and you feel sick and miserable, that's when you realize the magic in Pape's Diapepsin. It makes all stomach misery vanish in five minutes.

If your stomach is in a continuous revolt—if you can't get it regulated, please, for your sake, try Pape's Diapepsin. It's so needless to have a bad stomach—make your next meal a favorite food meal, then take a little Diapepsin. There will not be any distress—eat without fear. It's because Pape's Diapepsin "really does" regulate weak, out-of-order stomachs that gives it its millions of sales annually.

Get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. It is the quickest, surest stomach relief and cure known. It acts almost like magic—it is a scientific, harmless and pleasant stomach preparation which truly belongs in every home.

2 Drops of "GETS-IT," Out Comes the Corn!

It's the World's Wonder; Never Fails.

You'll make goo-goo eyes at your feet, after you use "GETS-IT" and you'll find the places where those blisters come used to be, just as smooth as your cheek.

"How Wide is a 'GETS-IT' Smile? Well, a Good Deal Over 2 Feet!"

There's no corn or callus among the millions of feet in the world that "GETS-IT" will not remove—there's no escape. "GETS-IT" is the new way, the simple, common-sense, sure way. It does away with greasy ointments, salves, pads, cotton rings, harnesses, knives, scissors, razors, files, and the limping and the painful pigeon-toe walk of so many corn-plagued people. All you do is put 2 drops of "GETS-IT" on the corn shrivels up and goes away. Nothing else in the world like "GETS-IT." Millions are using it. There's no pain, no trouble, no changing shoes because of corns.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere. 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Sold in Stanford and recommended as the world's best corn cure by Shugar's Drug Store, Stanford, Ky.

Mistaken Diagnosis—Doctors Guess Wrong Again

About five years ago, I wrote to you that I had been a terrible sufferer from kidney and bladder troubles, and that my physician informed me that my left kidney was in such condition that there was no hope for my recovery. I was advised to try your Swamp-Root as a last resort, and after taking four fifty-cent size bottles, I passed a gravel stone which weighed ten grains. I afterwards forwarded you this stone. Have had no return of any trouble since that time and cannot say too much in favor of your wonderful preparation, Swamp-Root, which cures, after physician fail.

Very truly yours,

The Best Women's Suits You Ever Saw at moderate prices—Wooltex, of course

BY special co-operation with the manufacturers of Wooltex tailored garments we have been able to assemble this remarkable collection. The models are wonderfully handsome, and in great variety. The materials are the popular gabardines, serges, poplins, coverts and checks. The illustration shows just four of the many superb designs.

When you consider that every material is absolutely all wool; that every fabric has been selected because of its superior qualities, and its correctness of style—

When you examine the linings of the garments and realize that every piece of silk is pure silk—

When you see how beautifully the garments are made, and are shown with what care and thoroughness every seam is run, and every vital point of tailoring is executed—

When you try on the garments and see how they conform to the figure, and how soft and elegant they feel—

When you realize the beautiful lines are not bolstered up by stiff canvas, but are tailored into a form which will retain its shapeliness during the life of the garment—

You will be amazed that garments of such elegance, refinement and general superiority can be bought for such reasonable prices as are marked on them.

Descriptions of the Suits Illustrated

The suit at the left of the picture, No. 1709, is adapted from a Paquin model. The effective pocket flaps are set on diagonally and outlined by closely-set buttons. The rolling collar is finished with tabs that button down on the jacket; slightly diagonal front. New circular skirt, with partial over-yoke, trimmed with buttons like the jacket.

The second figure, No. 1710, illustrates a suit adapted from a recent Doucet model. A charming effect is produced by the slash at each side of the coat, finished with buttons and buttonholes. The partial belt from side to side across the back holds in the fulness. Officer's collar overlaid with detachable washable collar.

No. 1711 is a charming suit in youthful effect with a panel back, which extends below the line of the coat at sides and in front. The partial belt around the back and sides ends at the panel in front. The skirt flares moderately below the yoke. The materials are serge, box poplin, and black and white checks.

Suit No. 1720 at the right is in a smart Polo effect, well cut on plain lines, with moderate fulness; finished with smart pockets on both jacket and skirt. Made in checks, poplin and covert cloth.

Many other Wooltex models at $25.00 to $30.00 combine variety and excellence that are absolutely unequalled in this city. But you must see them personally to appreciate fully their extraordinary value.

When may we have the pleasure of showing them to you?

Farm and Stock News

H. C. Baughman, cashier of the First National Bank, sold a pair of mules to Claude Hester for $300.

W. R. Gaines, recently sold to John Spoonamore, a four-year-old walking mare for $125.

George F. Anderson, of Boyle, sold to a Tennessee party a pair of fine mares for $500.

H. W. Turpin bought in Pulaski county, 27 head of shipping cattle at seven cents, says the Journal.

W. A. Brent sold to W. O. Walker 50 barrels of corn last week at $2.50 a barrel. It was slightly damaged.

Thomas Bass, of Mexico, Mo., sold to Thomas Denison, of Omaha, Neb., a chestnut stallion, "Underlight Grand," for $1,000.

Yovell & Eads, of the West End, bought of C. M. Back, a 1,655-pound Polled Angus bull for $101.75.

Wm R. Gaines, of Crab Orchard, sold a pair of mules to Gus Gieszi last week for $225. One was a four-year-old and the other an aged hybrid.

John B. Anderson, near Preachersville, sold to T. W. Jones, of Stanford, last week a bunch of 20 heifers at $6 a hundred. They weighed an average of 605 pounds.

John Lutes bought of John and Walter McKinney, a car-load of 725-pound heifers at $6.60. He shipped them to Cincinnati Saturday.

Kinnaird Bourne, of Garrard, bought a nice pair of coming three-year-old mare mules from W. L. Dunigan, of the Hubble section, last week, for which he paid $330.

At N. B. Graves sale in Scott county, sows sold at $29 to $66, calves $31 to $32.50, long yearling steers $33.50 to $37.50, corn brought $4.35 to $4.50, hay $20 per ton.

Charles Oatts, of the McKinney section, bought of E. J. Tanner a bunch of 90-pound hogs at six cents, and of John Robinson, of Boyle, a pair of mules for $375.

J. H. Baughman, near Shelby City bought of Henry Baughman and Ike Phillips, on the Crab Orchard pike, a bunch of steers that weighed an average of 910 pounds at six cents a pound. Mr. Baughman will feed them on his Boyle county farm.

C. J. Sipple, of London, was in Stanford Friday afternoon en route to Danville with three mules which he bought in Laurel county for Fox & Farris, the war mule men. He says the mule market is opening up in his section now and that these buyers will be in London next court day to secure some hybrids.

Horses were in demand at the Terry sale in Harrison county last week. They brought from $100 to $400. A young jack brought $400 and a saddle stallion $218. Jennets sold at $50 to $302. Polled Angus heifers $70 to $90. Corn sold at $4.50 to $4.85. The farm brought $150 per acre and another farm of 250 acres sold at $60.

Maurice Weil, the young buyer for the big cattle dealing firm of Weil & Son of Lexington, was here late last week, and bought 70 head of fat steers from O. L. & T. W. Jones, who have been feeding them at their farm south of Stanford. Dr. H. L. Casey, of Danville, assistant state veterinarian, came over from Danville, and inspected these heaves in accordance with the federal law, to see that there is no infection of the foot and mouth disease among them. He found them in prime condition and they were put on the cars at Rowland for shipment direct to the eastern market.

NOTICE TO STOCK MEN
I have received the following instructions:

Quarantine Order No. 28 Issued by State Live Stock Sanitary Board of Kentucky, Feb. 18, 1915.

At second outbreak of the disease commonly known as foot and mouth disease has occurred in the State of Kentucky, and now exists in at least two counties, and probably more, and these counties are in quarantine. Certain portions of twenty other states and territories are or have been visited by this plague. It is impossible to know accurately the centers of infection in the state in which this outbreak occurred, and it is impossible to tell at what time the states that are now free may have an outbreak of this disease; and therefore, in order to protect the animal industry of Kentucky.

IT IS ORDERED by the State Live Stock Sanitary Board of Kentucky that no cattle, sheep, or other ruminants, or swine intended for stocker, feeder or breeding purposes shall be brought into the State of Kentucky from any state in which this disease has existed, or in which it exists at the present time; and this order shall be applicable to any state in which an outbreak may hereafter occur when the fact becomes known and is certified to by the Bureau of Animal Industry, Washington.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that no sales shall occur in public market places, or upon the streets in any city or place in the State of Kentucky of any stocker, feeder or breeding cattle, sheep, or other ruminants or swine. This order is issued to cover in particular what is known as "court day sales" in this Commonwealth, and shall not apply to private sales in free territory.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that no cattle, sheep, or other ruminants or swine, intended for stocker, feeder or breeding purposes, shall be shipped into Kentucky from any state or territory in which no outbreak of this disease has occurred, unless said shipment shall be unloaded in the presence of, and be inspected by a County, State or Federal Inspector and no movement of above named animal shall occur from one county to another in this Commonwealth unless the animals are examined and certified to by a County, State or Federal Inspector in the county in which they originate, and the same movement of animals be inspected and certified to by a County, State or Federal Inspector in the county which is the destination of said movement.

This order shall in no wise supersede or cancel Quarantine Order No. 27 heretofore issued, which places certain counties and parts of counties in CLOSED and Modified areas.

Effective from and after midnight February 18, 1915.

All persons and common carriers will be governed accordingly. J. W. NEWMAN, Chairman, State Live Stock Sanitary Board of Kentucky.

S. F. MUSSELMAN, State Veterinarian. A. T. NUNNELLEY, Live Stock Inspector, Lincoln County. 16-2

CANDIDATE FOR SECRETARY OF STATE

G. B. LIKENS

TO THE VOTERS OF KENTUCKY—I am a candidate for Secretary of State, subject to the will of the Democratic party to be expressed in the primary election Aug. 7, 1915. My party loyalty, my availability as a candidate, my conduct as a private citizen and my record as a public official are respectfully submitted for investigation and consideration. For more than three years I have served you as Assistant Auditor, and while the office is not an elective one, the duties are important and exacting. These I have honestly endeavored to discharge properly and efficiently. My experience, I feel, has especially equipped me to fill the office to which I now aspire. If nominated and elected as your Secretary of State, all the energy and ability which I have shall be earnestly devoted to the business of that department. No duty will be too arduous for me to perform faithfully, and none will be considered too trivial to receive careful and prompt attention. Feeling very grateful for the assurances of support already received, and soliciting the votes and influence of all, I am,

Sincerely yours,
G. B. LIKENS.

Heard About Town

Let the I. J. do your job printing.

A handsome little son arrived at the home of John M. Carter, of Turnersville, Friday night. No name good enough for the youngster has been found by the fond parents, but they will likely call him John Jr.

Claud Johnston, of Ponca City, Okla., is mingling among his friends in the West End. He likes his Western home, but says he finds great pleasure in coming back to Lincoln and shaking hands with the friends of his younger days.

Bowman Owens, of McKinney, had the thumb and index finger of his right hand badly cut while working on a railroad velocipede Saturday morning. He was filling Ec Yocum's place as electrical inspector for the Q. & C., when the painful accident occurred.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Mahan, of Lancaster, took the train here Saturday for Louisville, where they went to take the three children of Henry Kidd, of Goshen to the Kentucky Orphan Home. Kidd was not able to take the care of the children that he should and consented to let them be taken where better attention could be shown them.

Hon. John W. Rawlings, of Danville, who is mentioned as a probable candidate for the democratic nomination for Attorney General, was here in court several days last week. Mr. Rawlings says that he will very probably announce his candidacy soon, and will make an active canvass. He has many warm friends in this section, who will work hard for his success.

State Senator Charles F. Montgomery and Postmaster Pat Whipp, of Liberty, were in Stanford, Monday for a short time on business. Mr. Whipp rented his nice cottage home on Lancaster street to E. C. Walton, who will move there with his family this week. Senator Montgomery has many friends here also. He made a splendid record in the last legislature, and will do the same when he goes back next January for the second part of his term.
